WELCOME BY THE PRESIDENT

Professor Simon Ho
President

On behalf of The Hang Seng University of Hong Kong (HSUHK), I take great pleasure in welcoming you to the Honours Academy (HA), an incubator for future servant leaders.

As a pioneering and visionary private university, HSUHK established the HA in 2020, the first and only of its kind initiated by a Hong Kong higher education institution. Extending on the University's unique "Liberal + Professional" education model, the HA aims to nurture high-achieving, high-potential and highly motivated students to become outstanding public leaders, who can direct positive changes in the local and global communities.

Adhering to this mission, each year the HA welcomes a cohort of around 20 rigorously-selected year-two and year-three undergraduate students to go through a two to three-year extra journey of focused leadership training. It comprises an innovative, interdisciplinary and policy-oriented curriculum as well as diversified experiential development opportunities. I would like to show special gratitude to our HA Professional Fellows, who are prestigious leaders from various sectors, serving as mentors of our HA students. Also, I sincerely appreciate our devoted faculty members who act as HA Academic Fellows, offering independent research supervision to HA students.

With the joint efforts from HSUHK staff and leaders from the community, I believe our HA Students will take the lead to make a better world.

MESSAGE FROM FOUNDING HEAD OF HONOURS ACADEMY

Welcome to the Honours Academy (HA) at The Hang Seng University of Hong Kong (HSUHK). As the founding HA Head, I am excited to introduce this talent development programme in Hong Kong. The HA is founded with the goals to bring together resources inside and outside of HSUHK in a systematic manner for talent development. We are committed to nurturing future leaders who will create a positive impact on society, both locally and globally.

The HA is built on the excellent foundation of HSUHK's academic diversity and seeks to develop our homegrown high-achievers through an innovative and flexible interdisciplinary curriculum structure. While our students pursue diverse majors, the HA serves as a hub to inspire them to think broadly and collaborate constructively with each other with the concerted support and efforts across different units in HSUHK. This unprecedented initiative in HSUHK reflects our dedication to education.

Professor Jeanne Fu
Vice-President
(Learning and Student Experience)
Founding Head of Honours Academy

We prioritise education through tailor-made modules, scholarships, experiential learning, senior research projects, and mentoring by our Professional and Academic Fellows.

Our prestigious mentoring programme connects HA students with industry leaders for job shadowing and guidance, while academic research projects are supervised by distinguished scholars. These experiences equip our students to analyse and solve social problems.

I encourage our carefully selected HA students to maximise the resources available for academic, professional, and personal growth. Admittance to the HA recognises academic and personal achievements. I welcome those who aspire to reach their highest potential to join the HA family.

GREETINGS FROM HEAD OF HONOURS ACADEMY

Back in February 2020, under the leadership of Honours Academy (HA)'s founding members—Professor YV Hui, Dr Tom Fong, Professor Jeanne Fu, and Ms Esther Lee—and with the support of the founding Secretariat Team—Cannon, Winnie, and Sucre—the noble idea of the HA, nurtured by President Ho, came to fruition. Today, empowered by our current Secretariat Team—Joanne, Nicole, Alison, Grace, and Candy—the HA family has not only welcomed its fifth cohort but also celebrated the graduation of our second cohort.

At the core of the HA experience is our unwavering belief in the power of family. We are not just highly motivated individuals striving for excellence; we are a close-knit community that fosters deep connections, nurtures personal growth, and values the bonds that unite us. Within the HA, we find a home where we can be our authentic selves, celebrate each other's achievements, and offer support and inspiration during times of challenge.

When one of us sheds tears, the HA family stands united, offering a shoulder to lean on.

When one of us succeeds, the HA family stands proudly, applauding from the front row.

As we continue on this journey, we are fortunate to be supported by a wealth of resources that strengthen our familial ties. First and foremost, we extend our sincere gratitude to a distinguished group of leaders from various industries who serve as Professional Fellows, guiding our students in their career aspirations and life goals. We are equally grateful to our esteemed Academic Fellows and research supervisors—renowned scholars within HSUHK—who mentor our students through their research projects, sharpening their intellect and preparing them to address the pressing challenges of society. Additionally, we deeply appreciate the support of HSUHK's administrative and academic units, and HA's partners in the community, without whom the HA curriculum and activities would not be possible.

Now, I invite each of you to join our HA family where you will definitely be amazed by our spirit of togetherness and family connections that will endure after graduation. Together, let us build a legacy of family bonding that transcends time, shaping not only our present, but also the future of the HA, and our society.

Welcome to the Honours Academy—a place where dreams take flight, and family bonds flourish.

Dr Holly Chung
Head of Honours Academy

Life is like a box of chocolates. You never know what you're gonna get. When I joined HA, I didn't know what to expect, but it turned out to be an amazing experience. I met a lot of great people, made some wonderful friends, and had incredible adventures together. We supported each other and grew in amazing ways.

The moral of the story is to try new things when you can. Embrace the unknown and do what excites you. You never know where it might lead, but the journey is sure to be rewarding.

Stephen Cheung

The path of self-discovery is paved with moments of wonder and growth, and the time spent in the Honours Academy (HA) feels like it's flown by. I offer my heartfelt gratitude to the remarkable people I've had the honor of meeting along this journey — my fellow peers, the esteemed HA Heads, and the dedicated staff. Together, we have thrived, supporting one another every step of the way, and I am humbled by all that I have learned from each of you. Through our shared experiences, I have grown as a leader, inspired by the light you bring to this exceptional community.

HA family is a wonderful place full of buddies who always support each other. I am glad we could explore the life journey with different cohorts and push the boundaries of what we think we cannot achieve. I believe every step counts and we will never regret the progress we have made when we look back. Thanks to HA for enriching my university life and for every coach, mentor, and staff.

Irene Luk

Bachelor of Business Administration (Honours) in Supply Chain Management

As my three-year journey comes to an end, I can't help but reflect on how quickly time has flown by. Throughout these years, I have been fortunate enough to be presented with various chances and opportunities that have helped shape me into a confident leader with my own unique style. However, amidst all the accomplishments and growth, one of the greatest gifts I have received during my university life is the HA family. The support and sense of belonging that I have found within HA have been invaluable. I am grateful for the friendships and memories that I have made, and I know that the HA family will always hold a special place in my heart.

Gloria Lo

To all the late night coffees and laughter, we did it and it's time to start a new chapter. Sure it's going to be tough, but so are you! Thank you HA for this wonderful journey. Wishing you all the best :)

Charlotte Ho

Bachelor of Business Administration (Honours) in Supply Chain Management

Live every day like it's your FIRST — Perceive the world with no prejudice. Appreciate the world with the eyes of a newborn. Be curious about everything as if you're seeing them for the first time. Try everything new as if you know no consequences. Pick yourself back up when you inevitably trip and fall. Let no conformities repress your feelings. Believe in what you truly think is right with the stubbornness of a child. Let no one but yourself guide your path.

Sunny Lee

Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Convergent Media and Communication Technology

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Honours Academy for all the opportunities given within these three years, as these learning activities are very worthy and really inspired me in personal growth and academic development. In the long journey of self-actualisation, I will keep accumulating more experiences and enhancing my confidence in my abilities and knowledge to unlock every opportunity in life.

Lydia Pun

Trying is winning—the biggest takeaway from my HA journey. Sometimes you will get lost and don't know what the right thing to do is, but as long as you try you will always find reward. I am very thankful to have HA to give me so many directions and opportunities to try. Love you all!

Berrie Chim

Bachelor of Translation with Business (Honours)

Is it going to be difficult? Maybe! Is it worth it? Definitely! Tasks you are going to be completing is just one side of the journey. Peers, professors, they are all going to be your friends eventually and that is the true reward for all the three years in HA. Have fun and enjoy!

Tse Yu-ho

My HA journey has brought me a new life. I have never thought that I can meet such a huge family in my university life and be in charge in different projects. I am very glad that I can step out of my comfort zone and embrace new experiences. It allows me to view the world differently.
